

Dragging Down Pains

are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, comes irregular and painful periods, weakening drains, backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, etc. The cure is that wonderful, curative, vegetable extract, which exerts such a marvelous, strengthening influence, on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain and regulates the menses. It is a sure and permanent cure for all female complaints. At all druggists and dealers in $1.00 bottles.

WINE OF Cardui

The Female Regulator

"I SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN in my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Grove, Mo., "also in my right and left sides, and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui I feel like a new woman and do not suffer as I did. It is the best medicine I ever took."

PRaise YOUR NEIGHBOR.

"In our judgment of others, we mortals are prone to talk of their faults without heeding our own. And this little rule should be treasured by all."

"If you can't praise your neighbor, don't name him at all."

Men's deeds are compounded of glory and shame. And surely 'tis sweeter to praise than to blame. Perfection has never been known since the Fall—

"If you can't praise your neighbor, don't name him at all."

Remember, ye cynics, the mote and the beam—Praise in your fault-finding and ponder the theme—Who has the least charity, quickest will fail—

"If you can't praise your neighbor, don't name him at all."

If we would but endeavor our own fault to mend We'd have all the work to which we could attend. Then let us be open Charity's call—

"If you can't praise your neighbor, don't name him at all."

MATRIMONIAL ALLIANCES.

The lack of good sense and judgment that many fathers and mothers display in regard to the matrimonial alliances of their children, amounts in very many instances, to rank idiocy. If they wish to "break off a love affair," they employ the very agent for its intensest promotion—opposition.

Infatuation, so often mistaken by young people for love, is a feeble-rooted plant, that will die of itself in time, if only let alone. Parental interference, of a dogmatic kind, will very probably drive its roots to a firm depth in the soil of affection.

It is unquestionably one of the severest trials between the beginning and end of life to rear a child with great care, and then, at manhood or womanhood, behold the labor worse than lost, as it seems to the parents. It seems bitterly ungrateful. A terrible blindness seems to have fallen like a pall upon their child's mental, moral and spiritual vision.

Our attention has been drawn to this topic by a number of social revelations, not pleasant to hear, and which had their origin in parental opposition. Private marriages are resorted to; scandalous arrangements entered upon; and often, what is still more sad and deplorable, the lives of brave and high-hearted lovers shadowed for life.

After the age of twenty-one, girls who have been properly educated, are quite as apt to know what they desire in a man for a husband, as their parents, and unreasonable opposition is as foolish as it is unkind. It is well to ask this question: Would marriage be the worst thing that could happen? Is my opposition fostering the best results? Is it my ambition, or my child's happiness I am seeking to promote? Has not my child the same right of a choice in a life companion that I had?

Another thing occurs at this point, that we cannot well refrain from protesting against. It is the folly—and nothing less than folly—that characterizes the conduct of far too many parents in regard to their children, and especially their daughters, who, in some weak moment, have behaved indiscreetly, and possibly shamefully. A child is a child, and no act of a parent can make it otherwise. Disinheritance, anger, unkindness and abuse only aggravate such matters, and what might have been kept a private family sorrow, becomes a public scandal, so crushing the helpless victim that not even a whole life time of remorse and repentance can succeed in washing out the blot on her reputation. Life is so short—human happiness, at best, so poor and small—is there anything to be gained by making a bad matter worse, on a miserable fellow creature still more wretched? Are truth and virtue so frail and weak as to be utterly destroyed by the breath of a pitiful error? Must Christ be again crucified to teach us the beauty of charity and forgiveness?

HOW TO JUDGE BOOKS.

Would you know whether the tendency of a book is good or evil, examine in what state of mind you are in when you lay it down. Has it induced you to suspect that what you have been accustomed to think unlawful may, after all, be innocent, and that may be harmless which you have hitherto been taught to think dangerous? Has it tended to make you dissatisfied and impatient under the control of others; and disposed you to relax in that self government, without which both the laws of God and man tell us there can be no virtue, and consequently no happiness? Has it attempted to abate your admiration and reverence for what is great and good, and to diminish in you the love of your country and your fellow beings? Has it addressed itself to your vani-

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nervous strength, or Nervous Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and ailing nerve centers. It builds: it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help.

If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with ty, your selfishness, or any other of your evil propensities? Has it defiled the imagination with what is loathsome, or choked the heart with what is monstrous? Has it disturbed the sense of right and wrong, which the Creator has implanted in the human soul? If so—if you are conscious of all or any of these effects—or if, having escaped from all, you have felt that such were the effects it was intended to produce, throw the book into the fire, whatever name it may bear on the title page! Throw it into the fire, young man, though it be the gift of a friend; young lady, away with the whole set, though it should be the prominent furniture of a rose-wood bookcase. There never was such a rage for book-reading as at the present time. It is a commendable habit, only one cannot be too careful in the selection of books.

Let a young man at twenty years of age put twenty dollars at interest, instead of expending it for tobacco. Then, at the beginning of the next year repeat it, and include also the principal and interest of the preceding year to year, until he shall have reached the age of seventy; the amount he would realize would exceed thirty thousand dollars. How many of our young men will try it?

Stop that tickling Cough! Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure will surely stop it, and with perfect safety. It is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else even with very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh and Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by all dealers.

The liquor question has a national significance of late owing to congressional action in regard to prohibition of inter State shipments into dry states and parts of states, and to the issuing of federal permits to parties where liquor could not be legally sold. There is no question as to what congress should do in these cases, but whether red tape and the liquor interests will allow it to be done this session is the important point.

Grippe is sweeping the country. Stop it with Preventives, before it gets deeply seated. To check early colds with this little Candy Cold Cure Tablets is surely sensible and safe. Preventives contain no Quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh or sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were promptly broken. Also good for feverish children. Large box, 48 tablets, 25 cents. Vest pocket boxes 5 cents. Sold by all dealers.

Farmers' Institute Meeting.

A meeting of the Farmers' Institute Club of Fulton county, will be in session at Tom Dillon, Sr.'s. marble yard office Saturday, Feb. 29, at 2 p. m.

Members are requested to be present and attend with them. Preliminary work for the season's campaign, and the encouragement of farmers in the promotion of experiment farms and agricultural colleges will be among the features considered.

Come out, it will be an afternoon well spent and profitable to us all.

By order of the President, W. A. NAYLOR.

JNO. A. McCLURE, Sec.

Mr. Roosevelt's order removing the motto "In God We Trust" from coins of the United States has been overruled by the coinage committee of congress, which has ordered the restoration of the words named. Numerous protests as to the change had been received and had weight with the committee.

Don't Put Off

until tomorrow what you can do today. If you are suffering from a torpid liver, or constipation, don't wait until tomorrow to get help.

Buy a bottle of Herbine and get that liver working right. Promptness about health saves many sick spells. Mrs. Ida Greenham, Point Tex, writes: "I used Herbine in my family for six years, and find it does all it claims to do."

Sold by Cowgill's Drug Store, Inc. and Helm & Ellison.

No. 28. For less than thirty dollars per acre, we offer a beautiful 52-acre tract of land, adjoining land that can't be bought for twice the money. The location is all that one could ask—two and one-half miles from town, on two mail routes and good road. About 27 acres cleared, balance in timber. Timber alone ought to be worth $400. There is no house on this land, but has a nice building site, plenty of water for stock and can easily be made a model little farm. Grows tobacco, wheat, corn, etc., with an abundant yield. Party owning this land wants to sell, being interested in another proposition. We might add that this place is on the Moscow and Clinton road and fenced. Don't ask questions unless you are interested. But this land is desirable for either a home or investment. Write or call on Hickman Courier Realty Co.

A Baby

should be sunshine in the house, and will be if you give it White's Cream Vermifuge for babies. This remedy is becoming the permanent fixture of all households. A mother with children, can't get along without a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge in the house. Sold by Cowgill's Drug Store Inc., and Helm & Ellison.
